Visite exclusive au cœur de J.K. Place Paris

"A teal velvet armchair draped with an orange cashmere blanket. Assouline art books on a Chinoiserie tea table. A Classical nude standing on a geometric colorblock carpet. Le luxe du nécessaire

“Walk-in wardrobes are almost as generously sized as the black-and-white marble bathrooms, which are kitted out with Dyson hairdryers and Alma K toiletries. Absolutely everything bears the J.K. monogram, from the robes and towels down to the ready-charged power banks.”

The ground-floor spaces merge seamlessly from lounge to bar to restaurant. The former is the spot for champagne and coffee, while perhaps the finest negronis in Paris are the order of the day at the bar.
