ANTIBES, FRANCE, Spring 2021 - Andy Swann Voyage is pleased to announce that we will be among the Best of France Exhibitors at DUCO France, the annual boutique travel summit held in Paris on 11-15 October 2021.

DUCO France is a niche, destination-oriented event, highlighting the excellence of the French hospitality to the world's most important buyers. Following the successful path of its sister event in Italy, DUCO France promotes the encounter between the utmost upscale French suppliers and an elite of travel experts: top producers, mainly from English-speaking markets. Beyond its exclusivity, elegance and savior faire, DUCO's biggest strength is the consistent networking and the year-round promotion of the Best of France.
