

LE PAVILLON
DE LA REINE

What makes Pavillon de la Reine different ?

A deeply romantic hideaway on the magical Place des Vosges in Le Marais, the oldest quartier in Paris, right in the heart of Paris.

Privately owned and family-run, with all the service, charm and elegance of a grand palace - with all the understated sophistication of a private home.

The only five-star hotel on Place des Vosges – often referred to as the most beautiful square in the world.

The 56 individually-decorated guestrooms and suites, and the entire ground floor were designed by Didier Benderli of Kérylos Intérieurs.

Two new star suites were completed in March 2017 – Suite de la Reine and Suite Madame de Sévigné – each blending a wonderful sense of place with the impossibly chic nature of the hotel.

The interiors are a brilliant combination of antiques and sleek contemporary comfort - cosy but stylish; sophisticated and comfortable, with a wonderful sense of place.

All guests have access to the new Spa de la Reine by Codage, with gymnasium, jacuzzi and hammam. There are two peaceful treatment rooms and a dedicated menu of new treatments especially for Pavillon de la Reine. The hotel dates back to the 17th century, covered in greenery, set back and hidden away from the galleries and cafés of the Place des Vosges by a private courtyard garden.

Pass through the secluded courtyard into the foyer, which feels like a private library, with intimate seating, stunning furniture and flowers everywhere.

Relax by the large stone fireplace in a comfortable chair, choose a drink from the honesty bar and admire the original oil paintings and antique furniture.

Enjoy a perfect breakfast in the lounge, then venture forth to explore the surrounding area.

DE LA REINE

What makes Pavillon de la Reine different ?

Le Marais is packed with fashionable boutiques by up-and-coming designers, as well as chic galleries and bars.

The area is steeped in history and fascinating private walking tours of the area are available exclusively through the hotel.

Great for families, the Pavillon de la Reine has wonderfully spacious interconnecting rooms and the Place des Vosges is a safe haven for children. Let the kids practise their French with the local BCBG enfants in the sandpit when they come out to play after school.

Launching September 2018, a brand-new and much-anticipated restaurant, Anne. Michelin-starred Chef Mathieu Pacaud (L'Ambroisie, Apicius, Divellec) has created a fine dining menu of classically French dishes, with a contemporary twist.

The interiors reflect the feel and tones found throughout the hotel and warmer days will see guests spill out on to the sun-drenched private garden courtyard – the perfect spot away from the bustle of the city to enjoy a relaxed meal amongst friends or post-work glass of wine.
