MAISON BLANCHE, THE PLACE TO EAT

An iconic place (since 80's), an exceptional character and a special situation (on top of the Théâtre des Champs-Élysées avenue Montaigne), the restaurant Maison Blanche continues writing his history: his white and unchanged decoration signed Imaad Rahmouni, his terrace with a "waouh" view on the River Seine and Eiffel Tower still seduce amateurs of good food and night events (Club Montaigne every Saturday). Before dancing, the gourmets appreciate the chef Fabrice Giraud's kitchen, who brings the sunshine of his native city La Ciotat since 2015. Sun and stars!

POCKET PALACE

Hotel Splendide Royal, member of Roberto Naldi Collection and Relais & Châteaux, is an elegant and cosy palace. The Paris smallest five stars hotel is welcoming guests looking for discretion and close personal services since 2016. His other asset? His delicious Italian restaurant. A chic bistro in a cosy place where the dedicated team (managed by Francesco) serve you the best of Italy. The new Neapolitan Chef, Raffaele De Mase, just arrived from Roma, prepares light meals for lunches and more extensive menu for dinners. Raffaele doesn't even speak French yet but his generous food and smile speak for him! Finish with one homemade ice cream and live the dolce vita in the heart of Paris. Buona notte! www.splendideroyal.fr

HELLO LULLI!

Try not to forget this confidential address next time you'll go to Paris! Hidden behind the Palais Royal gardens, Lulli is the restaurant of the beautiful and most secret 5* hotel of Paris, the Grand Hôtel du Palais Royal. Few tables in a lightfull place on a charming
