THE CONCEPT

Nestled in the heart of the Luberon Valley in an idyllic village just 45 minutes from Avignon, Coquillade Provence Resort & Spa epitomizes the quintessential tranquility of a Provençal retreat. The charming Relais & Châteaux affiliated property is located on a 100-acre estate studded with historical vineyards, cypress tree alleys and 300-year-old olive groves. The restored 11-century hamlet encompasses 63 spacious rooms and suites, a six-bedroom villa, three restaurants, two bars, a cycling center, and a luxury spa.

HISTORY

The oldest walls date back to the 11th century and according to the legend, the small village was founded by Cistercian monks of the Sénanque Abbey. Two centuries later, the vines were born in what is today our Aureto Vineyard.

HOST

Originally from Switzerland, Alain Bachmann established his roots in the Luberon 3 years ago. It is here that he puts his heart and energy into Coquillade to offer guests the most beautiful experiences.

THE PROJECT

It was a love affair for Provence that pushed Andreas Rihs to invest in the future of Coquillade. In 2006, this Swiss entrepreneur (†2018), known for his passion for wine and cycling, bought the old village built over the centuries on a hill surrounded by vineyards and has set itself the ambition to make it the most beautiful place for wine tourism in Provence. His sons Oliver and Tobias Rihs are now continuing this beautiful adventure.

THE OPENING

After its opening in 2008, Coquillade Provence Resort & Spa was rewarded for its hard work by obtaining its 5th star in 2011.

TODAY

The establishment took on a new dimension in 2015 with the expansion of 35 new rooms and suites, a 2000m<sup>2</sup> Spa and 400m<sup>2</sup> of event space. In 2020, Coquillade underwent a complete renovation furthering the property's unique and timeless charm. In 2022, five connecting luxury pool suites will be added offering 340m<sup>2</sup> of combined space accommodating 10-12 guests with a private entrance and private access to the spa. This place of life is a unique offer in Provence.

HERMANN HESS

A cultural and artistic heritage

This year, La Coquillade becomes the setting for a part of the works of Mr. Hermann Hess. His great-grandsons have decided to share this priceless cultural and artistic heritage with their guests.

Herman Hesse,

A word from the great-grandchildren

"Our great-grandfather, Hermann Hesse (1877-1962), novelist, poet, painter and winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature, was a great nature lover. His long walks were a source of inspiration for him. Here, in the heart of the Luberon Park, we are happy to share with you some of his most beautiful writings.

His work, full of humanism, is today part of the heritage of universal literature. His favorite themes such as the protection of nature and the quest for a higher purpose of existence than that of consumption remain great subjects of concern.

We hope that his words and thoughts will resonate with you and nourish your stay in La Coquillade.

Happy reading."

AURETO Vineyards

A few dozen kilometers from the "Giant of Provence", Mont Ventoux, and in the heart of the Luberon Natural Park, the Aureto wines are among the great names of the vineyard.

74 acres of Aureto vineyards surrounds Coquillade, whose oldest residence has known generations of winegrowers who have been producing wine since the 13th century.

Coquillade, or in Provençal "Couquihado" means the crested lark, which can be found in the logo. Aureto, "light breeze" in Provençal, inspired the name of the different wines.

A SUBTLE MARRIAGE

of Ventoux and Luberon Terroirs

Between Luberon and Ventoux, are the 74 acres of Aureto vineyards in the heart of an authentic and protected environment. The vineyard offers a range of wines in the Ventoux and Luberon Protected Designation of Origin and Protected Geographical Indication Vaucluse and Mediterranean, from its own vineyards or from selections carefully made by the cellar master.

When the vineyard was taken over in 2007, the winery was completely restructured to make the plots as suitable as possible to produce great wines.

Since 2019, Aureto has been managing the vineyard in a sustainable way with a commitment to organic farming. The first wines with the organic label will be released in 2022 and will be marketed starting in 2023.

AURÉLIE JULIEN
Cellar Master

Oenologist from Apt, Aurélie Julien is a pure regional product, combining pride in her terroir and technical skills. It was during a vacation in the Bordeaux region that she discovered the world of wine, which led her to take a BTS in Viticulture at the Lycée Macon Davaye, followed by a Master's degree in Vine Sciences at the Institute in Dijon, and a diploma in oenology from the Faculty of Pharmacy in Montpellier.

With her diplomas in hand, she decided to alternate for two years, making wine in France (Cave de Sylla of Sylla in Apt and Cave de Tain l'Hermitage) and abroad (New Zealand and Argentina). It is in 2009, back on her land, that she embarks on the Aureto adventure.

WINE TOURISM

at the heart of the Business

Aureto is an essential stop for wine tourism in the region. From April to September, the "Wine Break Aureto" offers gourmet tasting of selected cold cuts and cheeses, accompanied by wines from the field, as well as beer and grape juice.

VISIT OF THE WINE CELLAR FOLLOWED BY A GUIDED TASTING

Aur lie Julien, the Cellar Master and her team, welcome visitors for a visit of the wine-making cellar installed a few meters from the hotel and built two thirds underground.

SENSORY ANALYSIS WORKSHOPS

Aureto organizes workshops for an introduction to sensory analysis, for a unique and playful approach to tasting wine.

THE WINE PATH

A Winegrower's Path marked out in three routes leads to the discovery of the whole vineyard and takes exceptional viewpoints.

A new wind blows on Aureto

Since Aureto was founded, significant progress has been made, but the world and viticulture are changing. We see all the signs of change, characterized by global warming, humus degradation, CO2 accumulation in the atmosphere and biodiversity loss. Aureto must take strides to combat these negative effects on the environment.

Through a multitude of measures, Aureto aims to reposition itself to offer an even higher quality of wine.

Under the inspired and committed leadership of its cellar master Aurélie Julien and its operations manager Nicole Guillot, new paths are being taken:

Since September 2021, Aureto is one of the first climate neutral wineries in the south of France.

The entire production is in conversion to organic farming, to produce high quality wines, marked by terroir.

Biodynamic working methods are used, taking into account the natural cycles of the earth and sky.

From this comes the name of the new Aureto cuvées:

APHÉLIE, comes from the Greek word "apo", far and "helios", sun. The furthest point of a planet's orbit from the Sun.

ELYO, comes from the word "eile" which means sunshine in Greek. We think of "Helios", which means sun in Greek, and the name of the Greek god of the sun.

SOLALE, means "guide", for the new Grande Cuvée of Aureto.
