RAMATUELLE

One on one with the Mediterranean ◀

A private haven

Ramatuelle, the Saint-Tropez peninsula. A few minutes away from this legendary village lies a place that is still preserved from the buzz, far from the bustling crowds and noise. La Réserve Ramatuelle overlooks one of the most beautiful bays on the French Riviera, with a spectacular view of the endless sea. A vast private estate nestled in the Provençal garrigue scrubland, lulled by the song of the cicadas. A world apart, suspended between heaven and earth, blended with an exceptional natural environment.

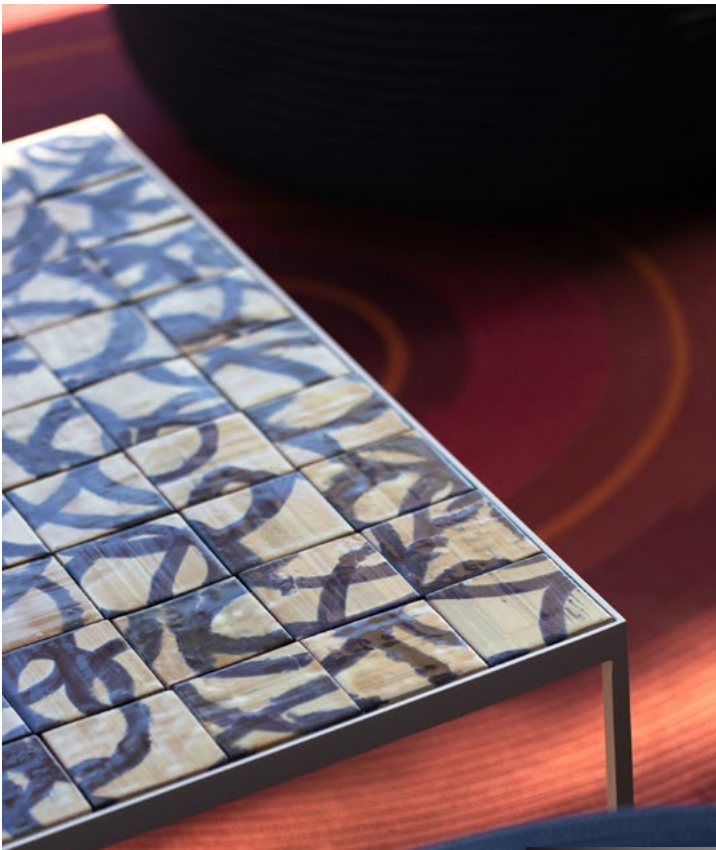

Michel Reybier's
arty chic inspiration,
a new facet to Jacques Garcia's talent

The interior decoration of this exclusive palace hotel is a tribute to the belle époque on the Riviera, where the artistic and literary avant-garde met and mingled. Crisp lines, spectacular volumes, raw and authentic materials in shades of white and natural tones... The atmosphere designed by Michel Reybier echoes the style and history of this emblematic building, dotted with carefully curated works of art and unique custom-made pieces. This is a decor designed to offer multiple visual and tactile sensations. Jacques Garcia reveals a lesser-known facet of his expertise through a tribute to the golden age of decorative arts in the 1950s and 1960s and to the finest names of the era, from Jean Cocteau to Capron.

NEW

The eternal Mediterranean summer in all its authenticity

Nineteen suites ranging from 55 to 100sqm, eight 45sqm rooms – all remarkably spacious areas offering spectacular views of the Mediterranean. The huge bay windows blur the boundary between inside and outside, accentuating the sense of total osmosis with an exceptional natural setting. The gradual transformation of half of the rooms and suites in 2023 reflects the new decorative concept defined by Michel Reybier and Jacques Garcia. Sophisticated simplicity radiating an emotion that is at once splendid and intimist.
